

International Corporate Governance Course - Guest Lecture

On December 2, 2009 Professor Ansgar Richter PhD from the Chair of Strategy and Organization hosted special guests for a lecture:

John P. Thompson and Erik S. Berntsen: "The Art of Corporate Governance: The Incentives of Enron".

John P. Thompson is a Director of Energy Alpha Strategies (EAS) and a former Senior Executive with Enron Europe (he built Enron's presence in Germany in the 1990s). Erik S. Berntsen is another Director of EAS and a long-time consultant. John and Erik are also the joint authors of "The Handbook of Energy Commodity Hedge Funds".

This guest lecture was part of the Chairs lecture series on International Corporate Governance in the MSc program, but was also open to all members of the EBS community.
